Set in a listed Georgian town house in Aylesbury in the county of Buckinghamshire, just a minute's walk from the Waterside Theatre and the new Waitrose, is The Greek Taverna. This contemporary restaurant has been open for almost five years with an ethos of providing wholesome, healthy, fresh and affordable food, with no trans fats, based on a Mediterranean diet from regional Greece and Cyprus.

‘...healthy, fresh...food, with no trans fats...’

Fulfilling this ethos, provisions are sourced regularly direct from wholesale markets in London, with fresh meat from Smithfield (including Aberdeen Angus beef), fresh fish and seafood from Billingsgate, fresh greens from Spitalfields and fresh flowers, when required, from New Covent Garden. These fresh ingredients are prepared and cooked in-house and served direct from kitchen to table for the enjoyment of diners. Islamic diners are also catered for. On Fridays and Saturdays (and Thursdays on request), the restaurant provides entertainment such as zorba dancing, plate smashing, Greek music and a

DJ and is open until 2am so guests can party into the night. The Greek Taverna caters for anniversaries, birthdays, corporate events, leaving parties, hen and stag nights, weddings, engagements (the registry office is nearby) and Valentine's day, Christmas and New Year's Eve parties. Enjoy good, fresh food – or just drinks from a well-stocked bar and entertainment – while being served by friendly and unobtrusive staff.
